Biographical/Historical Sketch

University of Toledo sociologist Rose Helper was born in Port Arthur, Ontario, Canada in 1908. Before coming to the University in 1959, she had already enjoyed a long and successful career in teaching and research. Helper earned Bachelors and Masters degrees from the University of Toronto in 1928 and 1945, respectively. She obtained her Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of Chicago in 1958, studying under noted sociologist, Dr. Louis Wirth. During her academic training she primarily supported herself as a researcher on race relations and minority group housing. A number of such studies by her were conducted at Fisk University, University of Chicago's Committee on Education, Training and Research in Race Relations, and the Commission on Race and Housing of the Fund for the Republic of New York University. Before moving to Toledo, she taught at high schools in Ontario, Canada, Connecticut College for Women and Indiana State Teachers College. Her doctoral dissertation "The Racial Practices of Real Estate Institutions in Selected Areas of Chicago" was revised and published as Racial Policies and Practices of Real Estate Brokers by Minnesota Press in 1969. It was considered a ground-breaking work at a time when housing and minority issues were coming to the national forefront.

Throughout her long career Dr. Helper was an active participant in a number of professional organizations, including the North Central Sociological Association; the Society for the Study of Social Problems; the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues; the Ohio Valley Sociological Association; the Midwest Sociological Society; and the American Sociological Association. She was also involved in a number of national and local Jewish organization and fair housing issues in the city of Toledo and state of Ohio. A number of scholarly studies have been published by her on race relations, housing and sociologically oriented issues. She likewise served as a guest editor of the journals Sociological Focus and Sociological Inquiry.

Central to Dr. Helper's University of Toledo activities was her role as advisor to the Alpha Kappa Delta Sociology honor society, from its inception in the 1960s through her retirement in the 1980s. She served on the organization's national Board of Directors, while also active in the Association of College Honor Societies.

Dr. Helper fought against age discrimination for much of her life, from her initial rejection from the University of Chicago's Ph.D. program based solely on an age requirement to her forced retirement from the University of Toledo in 1978. In 1988, she was chosen as Outstanding Emerita Woman by the University Women's Commission. During her eighties, Helper completed a major work on housing, "Equal for Some, Unequal for Others."

In 1995 Rose Helper, having never married, retired near her family in the state of New York. She passed away on April 9, 1998.

Scope and Content Note

Dr. Rose Helper's collection includes both personal and professional papers, documenting her graduate student and professional careers from the 1930s to the 1990s. The arrangement of the collection reflects her personal interests and activities as a scholar and researcher.

Series 1, Biographical, contains curriculum vitae, general information about Dr. Helper's life, photographs, retirement correspondence, and her obituary.

Series 2, University of Toledo Activities, contains departmental and university materials, chronologically arranged, as well as that of committees on which she served, listed alphabetically, then chronologically. Material utilized by Rose Helper in her teaching, 1959 to 1978, is presented alphabetically by course.

Series 3, Organizations, contains the various groups, academic, housing-related, or other, which reflect the scope of Dr. Helper's activities and interests outside the University of Toledo. Alpha Kappa Delta, the sociology honor society, is also included in this series. The files are arranged first alphabetically then chronologically. Correspondence related specifically to an organization is included in the file for that organization.

Series 4, Research, includes an array of materials influential in Helper's academic and professional career. It is chronicled by way of three general subsections: works by Helper, research materials, and works by others.

The fifth and final series, Correspondence, is composed of files organized by year from the 1940s through the 1990s. Almost all files pertain to professional correspondence, with the exception of Adlai Stevenson for whom Helper did political work during the 1950s. A special file is also maintained for Helper's lengthy correspondence with the Commission on Race and Housing.
